DEDICATION

At Molloy, we are proud that education has never been restricted to the confines of the classroom. School must be a preparation for the future; thus, the time that a student spends at Molloy is intended to help him choose wisely from the full range of life's possibilities. Books are only a small part of this process. This is a fact which many of us only now realize, but it is one which Brother James Maher has recognized throughout this four years here.

Brother James' task is not an enviable one. To maintain harmony in a community of 1600 distinct individuals seems at times a super-human job. Yet Brother James has done just this, with such patient firmness that he has won universal respect. Through him, we have seen that there is indeed a place for decency and fairness. These are not lessons which can be studied, memorized, or tested, but without them one cannot truly be said to have learned anything.

The enormity of Brother James' contribution is obvious. It is only fitting then, that it be recognized by the class which has shared Brother's first four years at Molloy.

To be in any form, what is that?
If nothing lay more developed the quahaug
and its callous shell were enough.
Mine is no callous shell,
I have instant conductors all over me
whether I pass or stop,
They seize every object and lead it
harmlessly through me.
I merely stir, press, feel with
my fingers, and am happy,
To touch my person to someone else's is about as much as I can stand.

Song of Myself
Walt Whitman

I think I will do nothing for a long time
but listen,
And accrue what I hear into myself . . . and let sounds contribute toward me.

IN TRIBUTE

William Peers

1957-1973

For this year's senior class, graduation will be a time for memories — some fond, some sad. More than a few of these recollections will involve one classmate who will not be there — Billy Peers. Yet these memories need not be sad, for Bill, by his death, said something to each of us. His determination in the face of hopeless illness, his quiet inner strength and his cheerful courage — all are models which the passing of time can not, and will not, diminish.

So it is with these thoughts in mind that the Class of 1975 pays tribute to Bill Peers.

The Stanner

Mr. Raymond E. Egan, Moderator; Frank Connolly, Editor-in-Chief; Mike Joyce, News Editor.

Ronald Mergenthaler, Sports Editor; Mike Mauro, Associate Editor; Pete Wood, Feature Editor; Tom LaMonte, Photography Editor.

Brian Foley, Rich Kelly, Jim Jeffery, Steve Phelan, John Merante, Norman Hanson, Paul Niechniedowicz.

F. Principe, W. Myslinski, J. Jorge, R. Serio, J. Kearny, L. Lyons, R. Lackner.

PHOTOGRAPHY STAFF: J. Jorge, F. Bailey, R. Slavkovsky, M. Velez, W. O'Donoghue, P. Svitra, J. Maneri, A. Tantillo, C. Maraia.

STANNER STAFF: J. Baumann, T. Abruzzo, C. Bianco, T. Walters, T. Sardo, P. Birkeland, F. Donnantuono, M. Donnantuono, T. Cava.

The STANNER, "Molloy's award-winning school newspaper," is the most frequently distributed and most widely-read school publication. Moderated by Mr. Raymond Egan, each of the STANNER'S seven yearly editions is a blending of the talents of over fifty students. Six senior editors oversee the work of a staff which spends roughly ten days a month writing, typing, composing headlines and proofreading. Certain staff members may also take in photographic assignments or contribute to the distinctive artwork which highlights each issue. Every month, articles are assigned which cover a wide range of topics, from school news and sports to such regular features as "What's Buzzin," "Senior Spotlight" and "Music Box." There are no specific qualifications for membership; everyone is welcome to join the monthly madness in Room 203.

Mr. Egan watches his STANNER staff lose to the SAC men.

Political Science Club

The Political Science Club has evolved in the last five years from a small group of politically interested students to a large group of politically active students. The club continues to fulfill its task — that of making Stanners aware of today's most prominent political leaders and issues. It does this via its policy of inviting both interesting and controversial guest speakers. Students can observe and question these elected officials in order to form a foundation on which to base their opinions — from knowledge not ignorance nor prejudice. Thus, such a program provides insights of a permanent nature.

President Bob Heinssen and moderator Mr. Diorio discuss plans for the club's future speakers.

William Cahn runs through the highlights of his talk with Bob Heinssen and Mr. Diorio.

In Appreciation . . .
Father James O'Brien

One of the many memories of our senior year will be the dedication of Father James O'Brien. He came to Molloy quietly and left quietly.

Helping people in a Christian way was a full time job for him. Students saw him as someone who always took the time to stop and listen. Teachers saw him as one who totally accepted every person as a beautiful, unique creation of God. He could usually be found talking with members of the Molloy community as a counselor or a priest, but also as a friend.

During his third year here, Fr. O'Brien's hectic schedule had a debilitating effect on his health. He leaves us at Molloy with the memory of his being a caring, compassionate friend. We cannot ever begin to put our thanks into words.
